

Social Media Ethics For Recertification

January 14, 2019

Human Services Building (Rex Eno Conference Room) 317 7th Ave SE, Cedar Rapids, IA 52401

Learning Objectives:

- Participants will understand and apply the ethical decision making model
- Participants will understand and apply the Iowa Board of Certification Code of Ethics for Prevention Specialists and Certified Alcohol and Drug Counselors
- Participants will discern appropriate professional behaviors for community based professionals, including but not limited to relationships with professional contacts, social media use, and behavior outside work

Who Should Attend: Substance Abuse Prevention Specialists, Social Workers, Public Health, and other professionals in related fields with significant community involvement

AGENDA

1:00-1:15	Opening, Introductions, & Overview of Objectives
1:15-2:15	Analysis of IBC Ethics Code
2:15-3:00	Case Studies & Practice
3:00-3:15	Break
3:15-4:00	Social Media, Technology, & Ethics
4:00-4:15	Final Discussions, Evaluations, & Wrap-Up

CEU CREDIT

3.0 CEUs in ethics have been approved for this training by the Iowa Board of Certification

COST

$30 ASAC Staff will receive 50% off registration fees.

Please Register Here on or before January 4, 2019.
Maximum of 30 participants

ABOUT THE TRAINERS

Erin Foster received her Bachelor's Degree from the University of Iowa. She started as a Prevention Specialist at ASAC in July of 2007 and became the Linn County Prevention Director in March 2012. Erin enjoys the time she gets to spend training on how substances have a large impact in the health and safety of a community.

Leslie Mussmann received her Bachelor's Degree from Mt. St. Clare College in Secondary Education and has been working in Prevention for over 16 years. She has been the ASAC Director of Prevention for Clinton and Jackson Counties since 2003. Leslie has been a Capacity Coach with IDPH since 2010 where she provides technical assistance, skill development training, and individual coaching to prevention professionals throughout Iowa.

