

ACE Interface Training

Thursday, October 10th, 2019

Human Services Building: 250 20th Ave N, Clinton, IA 52732

This course provides an in-depth look at adverse childhood experiences and is designed for educators, human service providers, law enforcement, and others concerned about the resiliency and wellbeing of individuals who have experienced trauma.

Participants will be able to:

- Define Adverse Childhood Experiences
- Explain the research behind ACES and how it impacts the developing brain at critical stages
- Describe the impact of ACES on those we serve

AGENDA

8:30-9:00 Registration
9:00-9:15 Impact of Toxic Stress on Brain Development
9:15-10:00 The ACEs Study
10:00-10:15- Break
10:15-11:00 Resilience – Core Protective Systems
11:00-12:00 Implementation Strategies- Working with individuals with trauma backgrounds
12:00-12:15: Wrap Up & Evaluations

CEU CREDIT

3.0 CEUs will be requested from the Iowa Board of Certification.

COST

$30- Covers participant materials and CEU's.
ASAC Staff will receive 50% off registration fees.
Maximum of 30 participants.

Please Register Here on or before October 3, 2019.

ABOUT THE TRAINERS

Candace Seitz, ACPS, received her Bachelor's Degree in Criminology from the University of South Florida and has worked with youth and families for over 20 years. She is an Advanced Certified Prevention Specialist at the Area Substance Abuse Council and has worked in the substance abuse prevention field for the past 8 years. Candace's work has been focused around assessing community needs, educating the community and building capacity to plan and implement environmental strategies, and evaluating community efforts.

Emily Parker, Prevention Specialist at Area Substance Abuse Council received her Bachelor's Degree in Sociology with an emphasis in diversity and inclusion from the University of Northern Iowa. As a Prevention Specialist at ASAC, Emily has focused much of her passions and efforts on the at risk populations, specifically youth and their families. Emily's work in prevention has been focused around stigma free education regarding mental health and substance use disorders, and connecting these ideologies back into the community.