

Take It Personally

Valuable insight for people who care for kids

Connecting the Dots

Tuesday, March 10, 2020, 9 am - 12 pm

Clinton Community College
1000 Lincoln Blvd, Room 139

Participants will gain knowledge of:

- Connections that make young people thrive
- Strengthening relationships with youth in your organizations
- Building strong and flexible webs of relationships
- The developmental relationship framework

ABOUT THE PRESENTERS

Tiffany Harris is a Certified Prevention Specialist at the Area Substance Abuse Council and has worked with youth in various capacities for more than 20 years. She is very dedicated to youth development and wants to see all kids strive to be the best that they can be. Tiffany received her Bachelor's Degree in Sociology from Mount St. Clare College.

Candace Seitz is an Advanced Certified Prevention Specialist at the Area Substance Abuse Council, working in the substance abuse prevention field for the past 8 years. Her work has focused around assessing community needs, educating the community and building capacity to plan and implement environmental strategies and evaluating community efforts. Candace received her Bachelor's Degree in Criminology from the University of South Florida and has worked with youth and families for more than 20 years.

This event is free! Registration is required:
Please RSVP to Tiffany Harris,
ASAC Prevention Specialist
563-243-2124 ext 112; TiffanyHarris@asac.us

